Day 1

5 APR 2026

6:30 PM

Ubud evening walk (Monkey Forest Road & Ubud Art Market area)

Ease into Ubud with a relaxed evening stroll along Monkey Forest Road and around the Ubud Art Market/Ubud Palace area. Expect boutiques, small galleries, and a lively street scene that's perfect for a first night in town.

- Monkey Forest Road gets busy around dinner—walk a block or two off the main strip for quieter cafes and better-value boutiques.
- If you want a quick cultural add-on, check the Ubud Palace noticeboard for same-night dance performances and ticket counters nearby.

8:30 AM

Tegallalang Rice Terraces

Visit Bali’s most iconic rice terraces, with layered green paddies and classic viewpoint stops. Nearby swing platforms and photo spots make it a popular morning outing from Ubud.

- For the best photos, head to the upper viewpoints first—lower paths can get muddy and crowded later in the morning.
- If you’re doing a swing, confirm what’s included (photos/insurance) before paying—packages vary by operator right on-site.

11:30 AM

Tirta Empul Temple

Tirta Empul is a revered holy spring temple in Tampaksiring, known for its purification pools and traditional Balinese architecture. You can explore the courtyards or take part in the cleansing ritual if you'd like a deeper cultural experience.

- If you plan to do the purification ritual, bring a change of clothes and a small towel—there are usually changing areas but they can be basic.
- Look for the signage on which spouts are used for specific purposes; locals often skip certain fountains reserved for ceremonies.

3:30 PM

Tegenungan Waterfall

Tegenungan Waterfall is a scenic nature stop with a short but steep walk down to the base of the falls. It's a good mid-afternoon break for photos and a quick refresh in a lush setting.

- Wear shoes with grip—the steps can be slippery, especially after rain.
- If you want fewer crowds, spend more time at the lower viewpoint areas rather than the main photo platforms near the entrance.

6:30 PM

Ubud Palace and Saraswati Temple (Lotus Pond)

Visit Ubud Palace for its traditional Balinese architecture, then walk over to Saraswati Temple to see the famous lotus pond and ornate carvings. Around sunset, the area is especially atmospheric and often has cultural performances nearby.

- Arrive a little before sunset for the best light on the lotus pond—after dark it's still pretty, but photos are harder without a tripod.
- If there's a dance performance, buy tickets early and aim for seats toward the center for the best view of the stage.

Day 3

7 APR 2026

9:00 AM

Ubud to Seminyak (via Kintamani)

Scenic transfer from Ubud to Seminyak with Kintamani stops en route; total drive time is typically ~3–4.5 hours depending on traffic and stop durations.

11:00 AM

Mount Batur viewpoint (Kintamani)

Stop at Kintamani for panoramic views of Mount Batur and Lake Batur from the ridge viewpoints. It's a classic Central Bali photo stop with sweeping volcanic scenery.

- Bring a light layer—Kintamani can feel noticeably cooler and breezier than Ubud/Seminyak.
- If you're stopping at a viewpoint cafe, ask for a table facing the caldera before ordering—views vary a lot by seating.

4:30 PM

Arrive and check-in in Seminyak

Arrive in Seminyak and check in to your hotel, then take some time to freshen up before heading out for sunset.

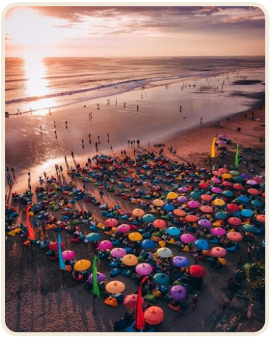
6:00 PM

Seminyak Beach sunset (Double Six / Petitenget stretch)

Enjoy a sunset walk along Seminyak's most popular shoreline, from the Double Six area up toward Petitenget. It's a classic Bali evening with beach bars, soft sand, and wide-open views.



- For a calmer sunset, start near Petitenget and walk south—Double Six is livelier and busier closer to sunset.
- Keep an eye on the tide line; at high tide the walkable beach narrows significantly in parts.

Day 4

8 APR 2026

9:00 AM

Seminyak to Nusa Dua (day trip)

Private day trip transfer from Seminyak to the Nusa Dua peninsula for coastal viewpoints and attractions.

| PICKUP | DROPOFF |
| --- | --- |
| Seminyak, Bali, Indonesia | Nusa Dua, Bali, Indonesia |

9:00 AM

Waterblow (Nusa Dua)

Stop at Waterblow on the Nusa Dua peninsula to see waves crash dramatically against the rocky shoreline. The experience depends heavily on sea conditions, but it's a quick and memorable coastal viewpoint.

- Stand behind the safety barriers—spray can be strong and the rocks get slick.
- If the sea is calm, it's still worth a short stop for the coastal walk, but the "blow" effect is best with bigger swells.

12:00 PM

Garuda Wisnu Kencana (GWK) Cultural Park

Explore GWK Cultural Park, home to the monumental Vishnu statue complex and landscaped cultural grounds. You can walk through exhibit areas and, if timings align, catch scheduled performances and cultural showcases.

- It's a large, open site—bring water and sun protection, especially around midday when shade is limited.
- Check the performance schedule at the entrance so you can time your walk to line up with any shows you want to see.

4:30 PM

Uluwatu Temple

Visit Uluwatu Temple, a dramatic sea temple perched on cliffs above the Indian Ocean. The cliffside paths and sunset views make it one of South Bali's most iconic stops.

- Uluwatu's monkeys are bold—keep sunglasses, phones, and loose items secured and avoid opening bags while walking.
- Walk the cliff path a bit away from the main gate for wider ocean views and fewer crowds before sunset.

6:00 PM

Kecak Fire Dance at Uluwatu

Watch the classic Kecak Fire Dance in Uluwatu's open-air amphitheatre, a powerful sunset-evening performance featuring chanting, storytelling, and fire elements. Ticket availability can be limited, so it's best to plan ahead.

- Buy tickets as early as you can (often at the venue) and aim to enter the amphitheatre early for better seating—center sections give the best sightlines.
- Bring a light layer; the cliffside breeze can pick up after sunset even when the day is warm.

9:30 AM

Tanah Lot Temple (optional, time permitting)

Tanah Lot is an iconic offshore sea temple set on a rocky outcrop, famous for its ocean views and dramatic setting. This stop is optional and works best if your flight timing and traffic buffers allow.

- Check the tide timing—at high tide the temple base is surrounded by water, which changes the viewpoints and access.
- Traffic can build quickly on the coastal roads; keep this as a flexible stop so you don't cut into airport buffer time.

12:00 PM

Seminyak to Ngurah Rai International Airport (DPS)

Private transfer from Seminyak to DPS (typically ~30–60 minutes depending on traffic). Plan to arrive early for international departure formalities.
